

E-portfolios for nursing students

The Department of Nursing has introduced e-portfolios for undergraduate students. These innovative virtual portfolios have entirely replaced the formerly paper-based practice portfolios, which contained a formal collection of evidence pertaining to clinical learning.

This provides a live repository of students' learning activities and reflection. It is owned and managed by the students, who invite educators electronically to review, discuss and provide feedback on their work.

*Do you have an example of good QA practice at your unit which you would like us to share?
Get in touch with us at qac@um.edu.mt*