

Il-Barokk: Sharing the Baroque Age on TV

The International Institute for Baroque Studies, in collaboration with Artique Productions, performs outreach through the television programme Il-Barokk. According to the Director of the Institute, Professor Denis De Lucca, the aim of these and other future programmes is to supplement the multi-disciplinary teaching and research activities of this operating unit of the University of Malta by disseminating knowledge about the Baroque Age to a wide audience.

Such productions support the 'National Impact' theme of the University's Strategic Plan 2020-2025, by 'promoting studies and research that are focused on cultural heritage' as well as 'instilling awareness and appreciation of Maltese characteristics'.
