

Embedding industry knowledge in the learning experience at MEDAC

The Mediterranean Academy of Diplomatic Studies \(MEDAC\)'s post-graduate Master in Diplomacy regularly hosts in the classroom ambassadors, policy-makers and personalities related to international relations who are visiting Malta to share with students their experience and insights. These sessions are strictly on a Chatham rule basis and conversations and difficult questions are the order of the day.

The evaluation feedback conducted at the end of each academic year invariably demonstrates that students rate this exposure and informal learning as one of the best take-aways from the course. This addresses the 'Enterprise and Industry Impact' theme of the University's Strategic Plan 2020-2025, namely in terms of the main commitment to 'embed industry knowledge in the learning experience'.
