

UM is now a QAA International Associate Member

In a bold move demonstrating unwavering commitment to quality education, the University of Malta has recently invested in an International Associate Membership with the Quality Assurance Agency \(QAA\).

This prestigious membership grants UM's staff and students with full access to QAA's Membership Resources site by simply using UM's email addresses. The Membership Resources Site includes a wide range of resources that support quality enhancement across the whole institution.
